Our Chester Learning Sites

University of Chester has a number of specialist sites spread across the historic city of Chester.

Exton Park

Just a 10-minute walk from Chester city centre, Exton Park is where our story began and is home to a number of academic Schools, accommodation and a range of sport and recreational facilities.

Creative Campus, Kingsway

Our creative hub for our art, design and performance-based courses run from the School for the Creative Industries.

Queen's Park

Our multi-million-pound corporate hub is home to Chester Business School and is only a stone's throw away from Chester's lively city centre.

Wheeler

Wheeler offers specialist vocational courses with excellent facilities for health and medicine, and delivers law and policing courses right in the heart of Chester's 'legal quarter'.

Bache Hall

Adjacent to the Countess of Chester Hospital, Bache Hall is home to Chester Medical School's research facilities.

Gateway House

Based within the 'cultural quarter' of Chester, adjacent to Storyhouse theatre and Chester Picturehouse, Gateway House is the new home for our Creative Writing and Journalism courses.

The Hammond

The Hammond is one of the leading providers of performing arts in the north west and is highly respected throughout the world.

Our University Centres

Our University Centres are dedicated to providing regional professional development opportunities on practice-based courses in Birkenhead, Nantwich and Warrington.

University Centre Warrington

Our University Centre specialising in delivering professional practice-based courses for those looking to pursue or progress a career in either education, health and social care.

University Centre Birkenhead

Our dedicated University Centre for health and nursing offers a range of outstanding subject specific teaching and learning facilities, all on one site, only a short commute from the city of Liverpool.

University Centre Reaseheath

A specialist land-based University Centre near Nantwich with a commitment to sustainability and conservation.

Thornton
